Complaint Review and Policy/Procedure Update
Jason Miller of Young, Minney & Corr reviewed updates and revisions to current complaint policies including Uniform Complaint and Title IX Complaint

- Public Comment
  - Karen Morfin - who is the ombudsman? Response- Mr. Miller doesn’t believe OSA has one and charter schools don’t need one.
  - Morey Riordan - who is the decision-maker? Response - it’s a case-by-vase basis. Should be no relationship between investigator and decision-maker. Usually decision-maker would be Executive Director.
  - Cava Menzies - Title IX complaints retroactively (after 8/26/2020) investigated as General or Uniform Complaint. Complaints submitted to T9 were any transferred if it doesn’t meet criteria? Response - each complaint that comes in is evaluated. Complaints can be investigated under two criteria simultaneously.
  - Karen - please update website.

- Board Comment (vote needed)
- Motion Reimann/2nd Barnes/Roll Call Vote: MPU

Report on Step It Up from Kev Choice with updates on program, update from Kala Stepter on student support tiers, health classes, supports for families. Katy Zaugg sharing current student supports in place. OSA is not alone in mental health and academic support needs. Working with all available supports to provide help. We offer short-term counseling for 6-8 weeks. Currently have 17 students in hospitalization programs for mental health reasons (it was an average of 2 per year pre-covid). Because of summer school and support classes 64 students got back to track to on-time graduation, or 15% of high school. Lisa Sherman-Colt’s report on fundraising success to date.
