OSA Land Acknowledgement

OSA is situated on Huichin, the unceded territories of the Chochenyo-speaking Lisjan Ohlone peoples, who have lived upon this land since the beginning of time. Indigenous peoples -- in California, the Americas, and around the world -- are still here.

OSA recognizes the historic genocide and ethnic cleansing inflicted upon Indigenous peoples in California and the Americas, including their forced removal from ancestral lands, and the deliberate and systematic destruction of their communities and culture. These conditions are ongoing and Indigenous people have been fighting against cultural erasure and for their sovereignty since the beginning of colonization.

To this end, we as a community strive to honor the Indigenous members of our community, uplift their voices and contributions to arts and culture, center Indigenous peoples’ worldviews in our classrooms, and support Indigenous sovereignty everywhere.

This land acknowledgement is a small act in supporting Indigenous communities and centering the Justice, Equity, Diversity, and Inclusion work within the Oakland School for the Arts. Solidarity with Indigenous nations can include:

1) Donating time and money to Indigenous-led organizations;

2) Amplifying the voices of Indigenous people leading grassroots change movements; and

3) Returning land.

(Address)

Dear (Name),

First of all, thank you for your hard work, commitment, and continued support for Oakland School for the Arts (OSA). Last year was no doubt a landmark year, and the school year we’ve just begun has already presented significant challenges. I have no doubt that, working together as a board, we will ensure the continued success of OSA.

Now entering its 20th year as a public charter school, OSA is prepared to serve over 800 students. We as a board have laid out an ambitious agenda for this 2021-22 fiscal year that includes:

- Item 1
- Item 2
- Item 3

In joining the OSA board of directors, we have all pledged our commitments to assist in carrying out this work. I depend on your guidance and support to help fulfill the mission of OSA. In order to survive the economic crisis that we are in, we must sustain our donor base in order to enable us to continue to offer an outstanding education to OSA students.

These fundraising efforts start with us. As members of OSA’s Board of Directors, it is important that we all do our part to fund the school’s operations and allow us to continue the work that we, as a board, have planned. This is what we each committed to as a board member.

This year, we continue our Board-Giving Campaign seeking undesignated, unrestricted support directly from board members. This request is being made independently of the other contributions board members make throughout this fiscal year. Your gift can be made through installments or as a one-time payment, and they may be given anytime during this fiscal year.

What’s new this year is our approach to fundraising through an equity lens, recognizing that each individual’s contributions of time, talent, and treasure will take different shapes. This year we seek 100% board participation in three areas:

- making a personally significant monetary gift
- spending time supporting fundraising efforts

This year, OSA is asking a minimum of $5,000 - give or get - per board member. We ask that each board member make a meaningful personal contribution and if that amount is less than $5,000, to commit to raising the remaining amount through other fundraising efforts. $1,500 represents the gap of per-student funding this year, and it is what we ask OSA families to contribute via the OSA Annual Fund. Please join me in making your tax-deductible gift as an investment in the students of Oakland School for the Arts.

I ask that you let us know the amount of your pledge by October 15th, 2021. This will allow us to plan for the year ahead. Please fill out the pledge form included and mail back to (insert new Advancement Director's name + contact info).

Thank you for the dedication and support you provide our school. We simply cannot do this work without you.
With gratitude,
Josefina Alvarado Mena
Chair, OSA Board of Directors

2. I will ☐ sponsor and/or ☐ purchase tickets to OSA’s spring fundraising event.
